Trafficking and Modern Slavery

Image
Arrows pointing out of a circle

Policy and Guidance

This section provides information on policy and guidance on trafficking

- Home Office has produced statutory guidance on Modern Slavery (recent version released October 2024)
- Home Office has released a factsheet on the impact of the Illegal Migration Act on modern slavery victims. (recent version released July 2023)
- Department of Education (DfE) provides statutory guidance on caring for unaccompanied migrant children and child victims of modern slavery. (recent version released November 2017).
- Home Office has produced a guidance on the roles and responsibilities of Independent Child Trafficking Guardians (ICTGs). You can also find referral forms in the guidance. (recent version released May 2024)
- DfE and Home Office set out guidance on safeguarding children who may have experienced trafficking. (recent version released October 2011). They also provide statutory guidance on inter-agency working together to safeguard children.

Resources

You can find here different resources on the trafficking

- Home Office provides an useful child exploitation disruption toolkit where you can find strategies to safeguard under 18s from sexual and criminal exploitation.
- NSPCC has produced advice on child trafficking in a free guidance for professionals concerned that a child or young person has been trafficked.

- ECPAT UK provides translated resources to inform children and young people from Vietnam at risk of exploitation.
- NSPPC provides educational resources on the recognition, prevention and legislation relating to UASC who have been trafficked.
- ECPAT UK and Barnardos provide support to young people with lived experience of trafficking.
- Migration Yorkshire provides a list of solicitors available to support young people with their asylum claim
- The Children's Society provides resources on identifying risk factors for child exploitation. Scroll down the page to insert your details for download.

Training

- ECPAT UK provide paid training on child trafficking.
- Barnardo's ICTG Service offers free online awareness sessions on trafficking and modern slavery.
- The Children's Society provides free online sessions on preventing child exploitation. Scroll down the page to book onto the sessions.

Contact for UASC hub

Your contact for Yorkshire and Humber is:

Delphine Jacobs - UASC Regional Coordinator wyr@migrationyorkshire.org.uk 0113.535.0119

Source URL: https://www.migrationyorkshire.org.uk/trafficking-and-modern-slavery