

Research and Publications

Image

File of books with apple on top

This section provides a range of research and publications from Migration Yorkshire or other agencies and organisations.

- Children's Commissioner reported the conditions faced by young refugees in a briefing on 'Detention of unaccompanied children arriving in Kent during 2020'(recent version released February 2021)
- Civil Society LOIPR Submission to the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child sets out priority issues and difficulties regularising status for undocumented children. (recent version released December 2020)
- Refugee Support Network for UNICEF UK provides a report about refugee children's access to education, including analysis of delays in accessing education in the UK. (recent version released July 2018)
- Project play published advocacy reports on 'Evictions -practices that violate children's rights on the Franco-British border' (recent version released September 2020)
- The University of Wolverhampton provides a new study on 'London's children and young people who are not British citizens: a profile.' This report discusses children in London who are growing up without any formal immigration status (recent version released January 2020)
- Free Movement provides a briefing on 'Nationality and children in care' (recent version released October 2020)
- ADCS published a research report on Safeguarding pressures (recent version released February 2021)

- Migration Yorkshire released the research report 'Someone to smile at you, that's all you need' which discusses how to better understand young refugees' experience in a new country. (recent version released December 2019)
- Greater Manchester Immigration Aid Unit released a report on COVID 19 asylum delays on children in North West of England. (recent version released March 2021)

Contact for UASC hub

Your contact for Yorkshire and Humber is:

Delphine Jacobs - UASC Regional Coordinator
wyr@migrationyorkshire.org.uk
0113 535 0119

Source URL: <https://www.migrationyorkshire.org.uk/research-and-publications>